

“ReNew Orleans Jazz Festival” FREE June 8, 9, 10 & 11th
Four Bands, Five Events, Two Film Screenings and YOU

Doors open one-half hour prior to start times

- Thursday, June 8th, 2:00 matinee AND 7:30 evening screening
“New Orleans Music in Exile” brand new two-hour film by Robert Mugge, “king of the American music documentary,” on the impact of Katrina on musicians, featuring Dr. John, Irma Thomas, Marcia Ball, Kermit Ruffins, Rebirth Brass Band and more. Community Room, 3rd floor.
- Friday, June 9th, 8:00 p.m.
Tammy Hall Quartet featuring Helena Jack contemporary jazz Reading Room concert with pre-concert outdoor entertainment (7:15 p.m.) by Clint Baker’s Brass Band
traditional New-Orleans style street band
- Saturday, June 10th, 8:00 p.m.
Charles Hamilton Jazz Ensemble
original contemporary jazz Reading Room concert;
BHS jazz director steps up to the microphone
- Sunday, June 11th, 8:00 p.m.
Orquesta La Moderna Tradicion Irresistible Cuban dance music; Open dance floor
AND Reading Room concert seating

explore the New Orleans connections to contemporary jazz, salsa & danzon explore your own connections to what’s happening in New Orleans, now All events at the Central Library, 2090 Kittredge at Shattuck, downtown Berkeley.
Sponsored by the Friends of the Library. Grand piano provided by Piedmont Piano Co.
Info: 510-981-6100.