TAX HYPOCRISY AND HOW IT CAN WORK FOR YOU

Randy Silverman, tax specialist for over 30 years, will present a FREE evening discussion, “Tax Hypocrisy and How it Can Work for You”, at Berkeley Public Library, Central, on Tuesday, February 21st, 7pm-8:30pm, in the Community Room, 3rd floor, 2090 Kittredge at Shattuck, downtown Berkeley.

Randy will dispel the befuddlement that can overcome even highly educated people when they enter the world of taxes. He will discuss how the current tax system preserves the maldistribution of wealth and income, and how a truly progressive system of taxation could promote economic fairness and equality.

Getting practical, he will define key tax terms in everyday language, help you understand your tax situation, and about whether you should prepare your own returns, what kinds of expenses you can deduct, and how to use the law to lower your taxes.
