“HOW MY GRANDMOTHER FOUND A STORY IN A PLATE” - A PERFORMANCE PIECE BY STORYTELLER, DANCER AND VISUAL ARTIST
PATRICIA BULITT. THE PERFORMANCE WILL TAKE PLACE AT THE SOUTH BRANCH OF THE BERKELEY PUBLIC LIBRARY.

Performance Artist PATRICIA BULITT will share the story that her grandmother created especially for her when she was a child, at a storytelling program at the South Branch Library. Ms. Bulitt has told this story throughout the SF Bay Area in such venues as schools, art centers and libraries. Ms. Bulitt is well known for her paper dress displays, and storytelling workshops. Ms. Bulitt will bring the story plate to this performance and will wear her original wearable art dress. The program is a program of heart warming storytelling suitable for all ages. The program will occur at 1 pm on Saturday October 11 at the South Berkeley Branch Library, 1901 Russell Street @ MLK, Jr Way.

This program is sponsored by the Friends of the Library. The South Branch is open Mondays, Tuesdays, Fridays, and Saturdays from 10-6pm; and from 12-8pm on Wednesdays and Thursdays. For questions and accessibility information, call 510-981-6107, TTY 510-548-1240, <http://www.berkeleypubliclibrary.org>.
