

Berkeley's public schools' desegregation Questionnaire

Did you know that Berkeley's public schools were among the first in the nation to voluntarily desegregate?

Did you or someone you know experience the momentous social experiment first-hand?

1. What is your name and how may we contact you:

2. When were you born:

___ 1955 or before

___ 1956 to 1975

___ 1976 or later

3. During Berkeley's public schools' desegregation you were:
(check all that apply)

A student in a Berkeley public school.

A parent of a school-aged child in Berkeley.

Working in some capacity for education in Berkeley.

None of the above (please elaborate).

4. Describe your ethnic makeup:

5. Share a memory of Berkeley's public school desegregation on the back of this sheet of paper.

Completed applications may be returned in person to any Berkeley Public Library or mailed to Jef Findley, Berkeley Public Library, 2nd Floor, 2090 Kittredge St, Berkeley CA 94704

To request a sign language interpreter, real-time captioning, materials in large print or Braille, or other accommodations for this event, call 510-981-6107 or 510-548-1240 (TTY).

At least 5 working days will help ensure availability.

Please do not wear perfumes or scents to public performances.