Changes in Before-Holiday Wednesday Hours at the Berkeley Public Library

On Thanksgiving Eve and New Year's Eve, the Wednesdays before Thanksgiving Day and New Year's Day, all Berkeley Public Library locations -- Central Library and all Branch Libraries -- will have the same schedule and will be open 10:00 am to 6:00 pm. For those two Wednesdays only, there will be no evening hours at any Berkeley Public Library location.

Also, Library users, please do not return your library materials -- books, CDs, DVDs, Videos, Cassettes, and other library materials -- on the days we are closed. It takes us longer to get materials back on the shelf if they are returned all at once when we are closed. Note: fines will not accrue while we are closed so there is no penalty for returning materials when we are open again. Please return materials up to two days after the holiday closures with no penalties. Thanks!

Attached are the other remaining Berkeley Public Library holidays for 2008.
Happy Holidays from the Berkeley Public Library!
