

At the Med... Were You There?

Thirty years of sketches from Telegraph Avenue's Mediterranean Coffee House by Doyl Haley

An exhibition at the Berkeley Public Library July 24 through August 20, 2007

From the 1960's, through the 1970's and 1980's, Doyl Haley spent every lunch hour at the "Med" on Telegraph, sketching the café's patrons, often unnoticed by his subjects. A self trained artist, his work documents the characters that are part of Berkeley's lively history.

Special Lecture with the artist and Art Historian John McNamara, UC Berkeley

Saturday, August 4, 2007
2 -4 PM

John McNamara with UC Berkeley since 1993, teaching painting and drawing and mentoring graduate student instructors. He is also an artist with numerous exhibitions of his paintings nationally.
He will discuss the work of Doyl Haley

Community Meeting Room, 3rd Floor
Central Library 2090 Kittredge

For more information call 510-981-6100 or visit www.berkeleypubliclibrary.org

Wheelchair accessible. To request a sign language interpreter or other accommodations for this event, call 510-981-6107 or 510-548-1240 (TTD). At least 5 working days will help ensure availability. Please do not wear perfumes or scents to public performances.