

Training FOR Grantseekers

AT THE Berkeley Public Library

Tuesday August 26th, 2008

5 – 7:30 pm

Central Library, 2090 Kittredge St
3rd floor community meeting room

Is your nonprofit organization seeking funding?

Come to a two-part workshop especially for beginning grantseekers, taught by the Foundation Center. Class starts with Grantseeking Basics, followed by a hands-on introduction to the Foundation Directory Online. Grantseeking Basics covers researching and applying for foundation grants and includes an overview of the world of philanthropy, considerations before applying for grants, and resources to research and prepare your proposals. The Foundation Directory Online has information on thousands of grantmakers and the funding they have given.

Call 510-981-6148 to register. Class is free, but registration is required.

Wheelchair accessible. To request a sign language interpreter, real-time captioning, materials in large print or Braille, or other accommodations for this event, call 510-981-6106 or 510-548-1240 (TTY). At least 5 working days will help ensure availability. Please do not wear perfumes or scents to public meetings.
